3. REFERENCES

For your application, you will need to have two letters of recommendation assessing your ability to conduct graduate-level work and your potential for a successful academic or professional career.

The letters of recommendation must be completed by faculty members, job supervisors, etc., who are most familiar with your professional and/or academic abilities and character.

Our platform will send an email directly to your recommenders asking to fill the recommendation in an online platform. Referees are requested to complete these letters in English or, if written in another language, to attach an English language translation.

Don't forget to ask for the hard-copies that you will need to send in case you are selected to enroll.

Please note that your application will only be completed when the recommenders sent the recommendation letters.
